Central Idea (CCSS RI.6.2) (Common Core State Standards)

While Peter is reflecting on the vision he has just seen, a delegation of three men arrives from a centurion, Cornelius, who lived in the nearby coastal city of Caesarea. Read Feu Sur Le Juge.

Guns for General Washington: A Story of the American Revolution (Great Episodes)

Informed by readings in semiotics, psychoanalysis, phenomenology, and Marxism, we will map some key tensions of twentieth-century cultural theory and production: the relations between subjects and objects of observation, mechanical reproduction and imaginative creation, the legibility of images and the visibility of words, and the codes of verbal and visual meaning. On summer holidays finally got around to reading Colin Wells' book Sailing from Byzantium.
