A Series of Peerless Moments

It's a kind of book which is impossible to produce in the modern age; therefore the kind you have to search back decades to discover; the kind you hunt back through many tomes of French and British 'belles-lettres' expressly to find relief from today's incessant babble. The unity of the Church in time and space is linked to the unity of the faith: "there is one body and one Spirit... one faith" Eph These days we can imagine a group of people being united in a common cause, in mutual affection, in sharing the same destiny and a single purpose.
